UNDER THE SAME BLUE SKY

Marie Pol – Under the Same Blue Sky

Theme

Dear Sirs

I am delighted to share with you my recent painting series Under the Same Blue Sky (2019 to date).

What started out as a research into the emotive power of colour became a full-blown obsession in offering viewers meditative yet invigorating visual experiences.

Deeply rooted in my Russian cultural heritage – from the Orthodox mosaics to the naturalistic classical oil painting – this series uses a modern painting language to engage in the positive storytelling about the limitless human potential.

By shifting the viewer's gaze upwards and transforming seemingly familiar vistas into mosaics of colour and texture, I strive to remind the audience as well as myself that we are all born under the same blue sky and should have equal chances to live a rich fulfilling life.

Kind regards,

Marie Pol
